THE GOVERNORSHIP

Senator Mapp is being urged by many ladies and gentlemen to announce himself a candidate for Governor. Congressman Flood's friends want to see him enter the race, but it is certain that with Mapp and Flood both in the race Tucker will win the nomination. It is understood that the friends of Messrs. Flood and Mapp are conferring in Washington now about the matter, and an announcement is expected any day as to which one of the gentlemen will make the fight against Mr. Tucker. We are told by the best posted men that Mr. Flood is the only man who can beat Mr. Tucker for the nomination, and it is said Mr. Flood is not encouraging the sentiment in his favor, but rather discouraging it. Should his friends prevail on him to enter the race, an old-time campaign will be waged over the State.

WOMEN ENFRANCHISED

The Legislature of Tennessee has ratified the 19th amendment to the Constitution of the U. S., which provides that "the right of citizens of the U. S. to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the U. S. or by any State on account of sex."

The ratification has been certified to Washington, and our women now have the right to vote. A shame on the solons of Virginia that they failed to see the justice of the demand of our women and voted against the amendment. They will soon be on the wagon with the ladies. Now ladies, some on pay your $1.50 capitation tax and vote the Democratic ticket, the party which gave you the deciding vote enfranchising you.

Good Roads Must Come

If the State is enabled to issue bonds for road building, Virginia can have an adequate system of improved highways in five or six years, according to a statement made by State Highway Commissioner George P. Coleman. Under the present plan of road building through State appropriation and Federal aid, it will require fifteen or sixteen years to acplish this, Mr. Coleman thinks.

Mr. Coleman has pointed out in addresses made recently that it will be possible to raise as much as $40,000,000 by a State bond issue without increasing the tax rate. He estimates that the bonds can be retired in nineteen years and that this can be done without burdening the State financially.

Amendment of the State constitution to permit the commonwealth to issue bonds for road work will go to a vote of the people on November 2. Before that time, residents in the rural districts and towns, as well as in the cities, will have an opportunity to see what a great need exists in Virginia for good roads, through the exhibition of a five-reel motion picture, 'Virginia's New Hour,' under the auspices of the Virginia Good Roads Association.

This picture will be shown in school-houses and halls in every county in the State Through it, every Virginian will be made familiar with the poor roads in the Old Dominion at the present time and will be shown the benefits which would result from an adequate highway system. V. D. L. Robinson, executive secretary of the association, is now preparing an itinerary for the picture that will give it the widest possible distribution.

Buckingham

A lady friend tells this joke: She said a local spinster was asked by some young girls why she never married, and she told them all to come to her room that night, which they did, and when the question was put to her again she said, "Because I never had a chance."

James river was very high Friday and one span of the bridge at Bremo was washed away, and the mails from Richmond have to come here by another route.

The farmers' picnic was pulled off on schedulled time here Saturday last.

The cutting of tobacco has begun and it has been injured to some extent by excess of rain.

I have just opened a new grocery catalog sent by a mail order house and they quote granulated sugar at $17.95 per hundred and say they can furnish any desired quantity.

Mr. Wesley Adcock lost a hog killed by lightning last week

The melon crop was short to begin with, and the high water on low ground land played havoc with many patches.

The death of Mrs. Horner, which took place at Stuart Circle Hospital, Richmond, was a great shock to her many friends in this county. She was before her marriage Miss Maude Jones. She was truly a lovely character. She was a great favorite among her brothers and sisters. She made friends wherever she went. Her sisters and brothers came from far distant homes in other States to be with her in her last illness.

Mr. Peyton Moss is spending his rest time at his old home here

Miss Lucy A. Moss expects to resume her work at the high school at Atlee Station, five miles from Richmond

There was a select few at the Presbyterian church here Sunday. The bridge gone from North river kept some away, while others went to join the great throng at the big tabernacle. I was at both places for a while and heard some good preaching Dinner was served on the tabernacle grounds for those who brought none with them. The price of the meal was 50 cents and they had ham, fried chicken, Brunswick stew, and pie. A feature I never witnessed before was the singing of a hymn just before the meal and one of the ministers asked a blessing

Mr. P W Childress came home from Lynchburg Saturday and says the havoc and devastation caused by the great storm was awful. Tye river must have been high indeed to wash the big iron bridge away above Wingina

Excess of heat, cold, rain, snow and dry weather all come, and we cannot prevent them, but we are allowed to prepare for these emergencies rather then to complain and say we never saw anything like it before

Mrs. White has been very ill at the home of Miss Fannie White near this place; these people are newcomers here and are nice and refined people

Evergreen

"Did you ever see so much rain?" is the most familiar speech one hears now. We will be delighted to see a good sunshiny day. Our roads are as bad as winter roads.

Mr. Marcellus Fitzgerald, who has been visiting relatives around here, will return to his home in Petersburg this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Browning, of Richmond, came up after their daughter, Lucile, who has been spending the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Farrar and Miss Mattie Farrar and Miss Madian Lee attended the Woman's Missionary Society of the Lynchburg district, which met at Wesleyan church, Gladys, Va. They report a fine meeting, and the Gladys people are noted for their hospitality. Although there was a downpour of rain, everyone was cheerful and had a good time.

Miss Mattie Farrar is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hutson Fleshman, and attending the Concord meeting this week.

Mr. Jack Staples, of Alabama, is visiting his home people here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Thomas and daughter, of West Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Young, of Pamplin, were the guests of Mr. W. B. Thomas and Mr. G. T. Farrar last week.

Mrs. J. R. Conner entertained a number of her young friends Saturday night in honor of her cousins, Misses Smith, of Lynchburg

Mrs. Pitzer Johnson and baby, who has been visiting Mrs. A. J. Harvey, has returned to her home

Glenfall

It is a pleasure, Mr. Editor, to have "the spirit move" in the direction of a letter to your very popular county paper, by your quondom correspondent. The prolonged silence has not been caused by indifference but from "a lost art," consequently your readers may expect a dull letter

A disastrous overflow of all streams in this neighborhood is the absorbing topic of the day. Corn fields, tobacco, gardens, and last but not least, melon patches, were either washed away or covered over. It seems hard on our farmers, as all crops were good and simply waiting to be garnered; still we have many blessings left if "we count them one by one."

The various series of meetings have closed and all services were much enjoyed and we trust great good was done

Mr. King Adams and niece, Miss Moore Adams, from Cumberland county, spent several days as guests of Mrs. Kinckle Martin last week. Mr. Adams is now the worthy sheriff of his county, and though a Civil war veteran, he is still vigorous, full of life, and is entertaining in his recital of happenings of bygone days. Though a bachelor, "miserable dicta," he has not become crusty or seedy

Mr. Kirk Megginson attended the tabernacle meeting Sunday in Buckingham with his best girl

Misses Allen, Morgan and Covington were guests of Miss Edna Megginson during Liberty Chapel meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gunter have returned to Roanoke, after a short visit to their parents.

Miss Marcia Childers has returned to Lynchburg, after a visit of several weeks at her home

Suicide

Saturday afternoon Beasley Fore shot the top of his head off at his home in Appomattox county near Chap, which is the Campbell county line. The deceased lived until 10 p. m and spoke to those about him in a rational manner (though members of his family assert his mind was unbalanced) and asked that his body be not disturbed until the coroner could view it. He told his brother a short while before he committed the rash act that he intended to kill himself.

Deceased was a good man, lived on his brother's farm, and the reason assigned for his rash act is said to have been found in a little book in his pocket, which contained the information that his children had made demands upon him which he could not meet.

He was married four times and is survived by his last wife, seven children, six brothers and three sisters. He was about 41 years of age His remains were interred in the presence of a large crowd of friends at the old Haynes place in Campbell, the home of his first wife. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Lambdin, of Pamplin.

Woman's Wonderful Love.

Egg-Eating Snakes.

A queer African species of snake, which lives on eggs, has a toothlike spike projecting downward from its backbone, just behind the head, which is tipped with enamel. When it swallows an egg the latter passes down the gullet until it encounters the spike, which breaks the shell. Thus no part of the fluid contents is lost, as would be the case if the snake were obliged to bite the egg with its mouth-fangs.

IS YOUR HEALTH GRADUALLY SLIPPING?

Interesting Experience of a Texas Lady Who Declares That if More Women Knew About Cardui They Would Be Spared Much Sickness and Worry.

Navasota, Texas.—Mrs. W. M. Peden, of this place, relates the following interesting account of how she recovered her strength, having realized that she was actually losing her health:

"Health is the greatest thing in the world, and when you feel that gradually slipping away from you, you certainly sit up and take notice. That is what I did some time ago when I found myself in a very nervous, run-down condition of health. I was so tired and felt so lifeless I could hardly go at all.

"I was just no account for work. I would get a bucket of water and would feel so weak I would have to set it down before I felt like I could lift it to the shelf. In this condition, of course, to do even my housework was a task almost impossible to accomplish.

"I was . . . nervous and easily upset. I couldn't rest well at night and was . . . just lifeless.

"I heard of Cardui and after reading I decided I had some female trouble that was pulling me down. I sent for Cardui and began it. . .

"In a very short while after I began the Cardui Home Treatment I saw an improvement and it wasn't long until I was all right—good appetite, splendid rest, and much stronger so that I easily did my house work.

"Later I took a bottle of Cardui as a tonic. I can recommend Cardui and gladly do so, for if more women knew, it would save a great deal of worry and sickness."

The enthusiastic praise of thousands of other women who have found Cardui helpful should convince you that it is worth trying. All druggists sell it.

THE women should certainly be thankful for the automobile. It has given them a chance to see a lot more of their husbands.

II

But it has done a great deal more than that.

It has brought people closer together, given them new interests, swept away old prejudices.

What affects one man now generally affects a good many of his neighbors in the same way. And they have a better chance to get together and talk things over.

III

It's had its effect on the tire business.

When automobiles were new people were willing to buy any kind of a tire. Now they're beginning to insist on knowing what they are getting.

And the more they insist, the better it will be for us.

IV

We want our customers to know what they are getting.

That's why we represent U. S. Tires—so there will be no doubt about it.

Whatever the size of your car, you know that the U. S. Tire you put on it is the best kind of tire its makers know how to make.

U. S. Tires are guaranteed for life, without any limitation of mileage.

That ought to mean something to the man who has thought about tires.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.

For best results—everywhere—U. S. Royal Cords.
